We're going to discuss

- Why is everything so complicated?
- Does more regulation make things safer?

What's the role of the Registry?

- How do registries differ?
- Government vs. privately operated
- The registration process
- Operating process role (private vs. commercial)
- Personnel functions
- Surveillance and audits
- Funding sources

Why is everything so complicated?

- What is “everything” and “complicated”?
- What are the priorities?
- Scarcity of recourses
- Lack of personal service
- International operations and cross-border deals
- Financing considerations

Does more regulation make things safer?

- Purpose of the regulations?
- How do you know they work?
- Rulemaking process?
- International considerations, treaties
- Proactive or reactionary?
- Litigation considerations
- Sovern immunity

Conclusion

So ... how can registries simplify operations and registrations?

Thank you & Questions?
